

I am a kidney patient. Please,

DO NOT ASK ME TO PUMP MY FIST

Avoid:

- Repeated fist pumping during blood collection
- Keeping the fist tightly closed for a long time

A relaxed hand is preferred.

A gentle, single clench before needle insertion may sometimes be used.

Reason: Fist pumping or prolonged clenching can falsely raise potassium levels.